

Hubbardton Battlefield State Historic Site
5696 Monument Hill Road
Hubbardton, Vermont 05732
(802) 273-2282
www.HistoricVermont.org/Hubbardton
Open May 24 to October 13
Thurs. – Sun., and Monday holidays, 9:30 AM to 5:00 PM

Special Exhibit:

Seth Warner, Green Mountain Boy This small exhibit looks at the Revolutionary War service of Col. Seth Warner, one of the three American leaders of the Battle of Hubbardton.

On-going

Bring your flag to be raised over the Hubbardton Battlefield and receive a certificate. Children's colonial dress-up basket and colonial games.

Events:

May 26: Memorial Day Remembrance At noon the battlefield flags will be raised to full-mast and tributes will be paid at the battle monument to the soldiers of Hubbardton. Time: Noon

June 7: The British and the Battle of Hubbardton Brigadier Paul Loding of His Majesty's 53rd Regiment of Foot will tell the British story of the Battle of Hubbardton. Time: 2:00 PM.

June 14: Go Fly a Kite Make a simple kite (materials and instructions provided) or bring your own. Then fly it in the wide open spaces of the site, celebrating our many freedoms won during the Revolution. Alternate program inside if weather is inclement. Free. Small materials fee. Time: 1:00 -4:00 PM.

July 5 and 6: Battle of Hubbardton Revolutionary War Encampment Commemorate the 231st anniversary of the only Revolutionary War battle fought in Vermont. Activities for the whole family. Reenactors portray the soldiers who fought here. Tactical military demonstrations, drilling lessons, guided camp and battlefield tours, courts martial, camp life activities, Mistress Davenport's Schoolroom, history scavenger hunt, and colonial games. Performance by Seth Warner Mount Independence Fife & Drum Corps Saturday afternoon, shopping on sutler's row, and memorial service. Demonstration of Revolutionary War tactical maneuvers Sunday morning, followed by a symbolic Revolutionary relay to send news about the battle to the Old Constitution House in Windsor, Vt. Food stand both days. Call for details. Time: 9:30 – 5:00 PM Saturday, 8:00 -5:00 PM Sunday

August 16: Bennington Battle Day The Seth Warner Mount Independence Fife & Drum Corps perform favorite Revolutionary War music at 1:00. Afterwards site interpreter Carl Fuller leads a battlefield hike, telling the story of 16-year old Ebenezer Fletcher, an American soldier wounded and captured at the Battle of Hubbardton. Time: 1:00 PM.

August 16: By the Light of the Silvery Moon Astronomers reveal the magic of moonlight in Vermont. Watch the full moon rise over the Taconics. You bring binoculars, telescopes, blankets, and flashlights. We provide the marshmallows. Call ahead to make sure program is on. If inclement weather, alternate date is August 17. Time: 8:00 - 10:00 PM.

August 30: Star Light, Star Bright Star Night This annual deep sky show stars the constellations, planets, meteor showers, and satellites. Experienced stargazers will show you what to look for. You bring telescopes, binoculars, blankets, and flashlights. The marshmallows are on us. Call ahead to make sure program is on. If inclement weather, alternate date is August 31. Time: 8:00 - 10:00 PM.

September 11: Day of Remembrance The site will be open without charge for those who wish to contemplate or to honor past heroes. Time: 9:30 – 5:30 PM.

September 20: Hike the Military Road Site interpreter Carl Fuller leads a vigorous guided hike on the military road leading to the Hubbardton Battlefield. Wear sturdy shoes and bring water. Rain date is September 21. Vermont Archaeology Month program. Time: 2:00 – 5:00 PM.

October 5: Eleventh Annual Mount Zion Hike Hike up Mount Zion to enjoy the breathtaking views of the Hubbardton battlefield and the colors of autumn. Wear sturdy shoes, dress for the weather, and bring water. Meet at the Visitor Center. Time: 2:00 – 5:00 PM.